Dates & Locations for 2020 Meetings

- No meeting in December, will start back up in January 2020
- Holly reviewed the 2020 schedule
 - Locations are flexible and can be moved – doesn't have to be at the health departments
 - All meeting dates are listed on the website, www.healthyhoi.org
 - There will be a call-in option at each location
 - From the doodle poll – the most popular date was the last Monday of the month

Review Approved CHIP Documents

- Holly reviewed the CHIP plan
- Monica Hendrickson reminded the group that Mental Health and Substance Use are 2 separate priority areas that are currently meeting as one, but this can be split up in the future

Brainstorm Action Teams Activity

- Discussion on different breakout teams
 - Holly's thoughts on the agenda: Healthcare, Education & Trainings, Criminal Justice, and Harm Reduction
- Join where you feel that you can be most impactful
- It was asked if you could be in more than one group – that just depends on how your work flow would go
 - The new website allows you to participate in different discussion board
- It was suggested to combine Criminal Justice and Harm Reduction
- After looking at the strategies under Education and Trainings, many of them are youth. Should Education actually be called "Youth"?
- Mike Kennedy suggested the breakout sessions be: Curriculum and Education, Systems/Policy, and Services
- There was a lot of discussion around Trauma-Informed Practices/Schools/Communities
 - Where does everything fit into the big picture?
 - Is community separate or part of services?
 - Not just school focused

Amy Roberts/PCCHD Administrative Assistant

-Beth Crider suggested a bookshelf with the breakout sessions being: Healthcare, Education, and Criminal Justice/Harm Reduction.

-Then within the three each deal with System, Curriculum, and Services

Additional notes:

-Holly reviewed the website, www.healthyhoi.org with Discussion Boards; if you would like to join a discussion board, please go to www.healthyhoi.org and create an account. You will be able to “subscribe” to mental health and/or substance use. We will review this information in January, as well.

Next Meeting: January 27, 2020 @ 9:00am – Tazewell County Health Department
